The following Standard Terms and Conditions apply to each reservation for participation in an activity provided by Black Prong Adventures LLC ("Black Prong Adventures"), (an "Activity", "Activities") and govern the relationship between the individual booking the reservation and the individual engaging in Activities (the "Participant") and Black Prong Adventures as the provider of the Activities. Activities may include, without limitation, equine-related activities (such as trail riding and carriage rides) and water-based activities (such as pontoon boat tours, kayak rentals, and guided kayak tours) offered by Black Prong Adventures from time to time. Upon booking a reservation, whether online, by phone or in person, the Participant is deemed to have read, understood and accepted these Standard Terms and Conditions. Additionally, the Participant will be required to confirm agreement with the terms and conditions herein and to individually sign and have all members of the Participant's party to sign, the applicable Participant Release, Waiver and Assumption of Risk for the Activity being booked, either electronically during the booking process or upon arriving and prior to participating in any Activities.

Participant is granted access to the Property for the purpose of engaging in Activities. Participant is only permitted to park in designated parking areas and must report directly to the main office on the Property, as applicable, upon arrival.

Certain Activities may have age, health, swimming ability, and/or skill prerequisites. Participant must adhere to the instructions and guidelines provided by the Black Prong Adventures and Property staff at all times. Participant is responsible for ensuring Participant meets these requirements before engaging in Activities.

Participant is expected to act in a manner that does not endanger Participant, other participants, the Property, or the horses, staff or property of or being used by Black Prong Adventures. Black Prong Adventures reserves the right to deny or terminate participation in any Activity due to safety concerns, weather or water conditions, Participant conduct, or perceived impairment. In case of an emergency, Participant must follow the emergency procedures as instructed by the Black Prong Adventures or Property staff. While on the Property, Participant is required to follow all state and federal laws, all rules and policies of Black Prong Adventures, and all Property rules, policies, and instructions verbally communicated to Participant, at all times. In connection with Activities, Black Prong Adventures guides or staff may, but are not required to, carry basic first-aid supplies or emergency medications, including epinephrine in any available form or delivery method, for discretionary emergency use only. The availability or use of such supplies is not guaranteed and does not constitute the provision of medical care.

Water-Based Activities – Additional Acknowledgments. Participant understands and acknowledges that water-based Activities involve inherent risks, including but not limited to drowning or immersion in water; capsizing; collision with other vessels, docks, or objects; slips, trips, and falls; exposure to weather and rapidly changing water conditions; wildlife encounters; and delayed access to emergency medical assistance. Participant understands and acknowledges that water-based Activities may take place in natural bodies of water in Florida that are home to wildlife, including but not limited to alligators, snakes, turtles, fish, insects, and birds. Participant understands that wildlife may be present in or near the water even if not visible, and that interactions with wildlife can result in serious injury or death. Participant acknowledges that Black Prong Adventures does not control, monitor, remove, or relocate wildlife and makes no representations regarding the presence or absence of wildlife in any area used for water-based Activities. Participation in water-based Activities is entirely voluntary and at Participant's own risk. Failure or refusal to comply with safety instructions or rules may result in immediate removal from the vessel or Activity and forfeiture of all fees paid, without refund. Participant understands that (i) Black Prong Adventures does not provide lifeguard or rescue services; (ii) guided Activities do not guarantee Participant safety and are not a substitute for Participant's own judgment and caution; and (iii) self-guided rentals are used entirely at Participant's own discretion.

BLACK PRONG

caring for and insuring Participant's property. Neither Black Prong Adventures nor the Property owner is responsible for any damage to or loss of Participant's property, or the property of any member of Participant's party.

Under Florida law, an equine activity sponsor, equine professional, or any other person or legal entity is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. As a company involved in agritourism, Black Prong Adventures is not liable for injury or death of, or damage or loss to, a participant in an agritourism activity conducted by Black Prong Adventures at the Property as an agritourism location if such injury, death, damage, or loss results from the inherent risks of an agritourism activity. Inherent risks of agritourism activities include, among others, risks of injury inherent to land, equipment, and animals, as well as the potential for Participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to Participant's injury, death, damage, or loss. Participant assumes the risk of participating in agritourism activities on the Property.

In no event shall Black Prong Adventures or its affiliates be responsible for special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive, or exemplary damages arising from or in connection with Participant's involvement in Activities provided by Black Prong Adventures on the Property. Black Prong Adventure's total aggregate liability arising under this reservation shall not exceed the amount received from Participant for the reservation.

Health and Medical Conditions: Participant must disclose any relevant medical conditions or limitations to Black Prong Adventures staff prior to participating in Activities. Black Prong Adventures is not responsible for any health issues that may arise whether or not due to non-disclosure of medical conditions. Participant is engaging in the Activities at Participant's own risk. Black Prong Adventures is not liable for any injuries, illnesses, or accidents that occur during participation that are not due to the gross negligence of Black Prong Adventures.

Indemnification: Participant agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Black Prong Adventures, its affiliates and their respective members, managers, officers, employees, representatives and agents, from any loss, damage, claim, cost or expense, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses of litigation, resulting from Participant's participation in Activities provided by Black Prong Adventures, Participant's negligence, violation of applicable law, breach of Black Prong Adventures' policies, rules and regulations (posted, written or verbal) or of the terms and conditions stated herein, and/or any claim made or action brought by an employee, a customer, or a participant of Black Prong Adventures or the Property as a result of an accident or occurrence on the Property due to the negligent acts or omissions of the Participant. Participant has executed Black Prong Adventures' Participant Release, Waiver and Assumption of Risk form (the "Agreement") and understands the Agreement is incorporated into these Standard Terms and Conditions and applies to any and all of Participant's involvement in Activities provided by Black Prong Adventures. Indemnification obligations apply equally to equine and water-based Activities, including claims arising from Participant's operation of watercraft, failure to follow instructions, or violation of applicable law.

In the event Participant attempts to cancel Participant's reservation, or in any way alter Participant's reservation as a result of any of the foregoing, Participant will be subject to the Black Prong Adventures' Cancellation Policy as detailed herein.

Violations: Violations of the terms and conditions outlined herein may result in immediate cancellation of Participant's reservation, and removal from the Property, without refund. Black Prong Adventures shall further pursue remedies for violations of these Standard Terms and Conditions, in its sole discretion, by any means provided for herein and by law. Failure of Black Prong Adventures to enforce any obligations contained herein shall not be construed as a waiver of or release from the obligation nor shall it bar Black Prong Adventures from pursuing remedies for violations of the same or similar obligations in the future.

Modifications: Black Prong Adventures may modify these Standard Terms and Conditions at any time in its sole discretion. The Standard Terms and Conditions are included by reference to the agreement applicable to Participant's reservation and shall be those in effect at the time of participation in the Activities and can be found at <https://blackprongadventures.com/safety-policies/>
